RainTree partners with franchises of all ages and sizes to help them grow across the country and across the world. When you join our family, you immediately gain an experienced team of sales experts, marketing managers and graphic designers. Learn more about your future franchise team:

SALES EXPERT...

...Who knows the ins and outs of how to successfully walk a candidate through the franchise education process, how to identify the right types of candidates and most importantly, how to get them incredibly excited about your brand!

LEAD QUALIFIER...

...To help sift through the many inquiries we will receive and respond in lightening fast time. This person knows that first impressions last, so ensuring our leads are excited from the first call, email and text message is the goal.

MARKETING DIRECTOR...

...To ensure our marketing and advertising campaigns are successful, we constantly create, test, re-create and re-test our campaigns. To ensure not a penny is wasted, we meticulously manage each channel, with in-depth weekly reporting.

BRAND MANAGER...

...For all questions, ideas, updates etc, you have a dedicated brand manager who does the digging around so you don't have to. The Brand Manager helps keep the entire team organized and (g)rowing in the same direction!

GRAPHIC DESIGNER...

...Once your franchise is correctly packaged through effective marketing tools, you'll have your own graphic designer to make updates as required. From website updates, to presentations and franchise reports, your Graphic Designer has you covered.

BROKER LIASON...

...To cultivate relationships with the right brokers. Your new Broker Liaison will be responsible for the entire broker program, and through tactics like monthly newsletters, regular webinars, personal phone calls, incentive programs and face-to-face meetings, we typically do this quite well!
